

CM/ECF will occasionally disallow user login attempts based on a cookie from an old session. If you see an error message that reads "Login failed - either your login name or key is incorrect," then your first step should be to clear your cookies. This video demonstrates how to clear cookies in Internet Explorer.